

Data Management 2007
Geological Society, Burlington House, Piccadilly, London
Monday/Tuesday 10th and 11th December 2007

Provisional Agenda –

We have two vacant slots – offers of papers to Paul Duller (P.Duller@btinternet.com)

Timings	Topic/Activity
10th	Registration from 0845
0930	Conference Introduction. Paul Duller, Tribal Group.
	Databanks and National Repositories
0940	CDA 2007 - Broadening the Base. Malcolm Fleming, CDA.
1010	Managing your National Assets. Jeremy Giles, British Geological Survey.
1040	Coffee Break
1110	Planning and managing large-scale long-term seismic data archives. Matthew Addis, University of Southampton
1140	Capturing the Energy - Creating a national archive for the offshore oil and gas industry. Siobhan Convery, University of Aberdeen
	New Trends and Developments
1210	Social Computing Trends, Tools and Applications in the E&P Sector. Paul Duller, Tribal Group.
1240	Lunch
1330	Web 2.0, Enterprise 2.0, Collaborative Platforms and Blogs etc - Can they help in E&P DM/IM/KM? W.Jakubowicz and Robert Casalis du Pury, Hampton Data Services.
1400	Recent Trends and Developments in E&P Data Management (provisional title), Author to be announced, Schlumberger
	Standards and Formats
1430	Vacant Slot. Offers of additional Papers to Paul Duller (P.Duller@btinternet.com)
1500	Coffee Break
1530	WITSML - the real time well data management standard. Nick Gibson, Kongsberg Intellifield.
1600	Formats are Changing - Get with it or get lumbered with it. Jill Lewis, Chair, Technical Standards Committee, SEG and Troika International.
1630	Standards can increase the range of analytical capabilities, not necessarily reduce to lowest commonality: building on the IGC standards for Petrographic Data in Sedimentology. Barrie Wells, Conwy Valley Systems.
1700	Evening Reception until 1900
11th	Registration from 0900
	Workflow, Processes and Planning
0930	Timely Access to Trusted Data: Legacy Data Management Improves the Efficiency of Geological Data Workflow. Tarun Chandrasekhar and Robert E. Best, Neuralog Inc.
1000	A process approach to geotechnical information management - A case study. Simon Cushing, Venture Information Management.
1030	Coffee Break
1100	Planning for Success - Workforce Planning. Tim Doel, Venture Information Management.
	Case Histories
1130	Extracting Value from Standards. Trudy Curtis, PPDm.
1200	Lunch
1300	PT Caltex Pacific Indonesia's Integrated Earth Sciences and Engineering Data Management Project. Gerald Edwards. Qatar Petroleum.
1330	Compliant Records Management – you can't ignore it. Veronica Gordon, Iron Mountain.
1400	Data Management - from archiving and obsolescence. Hamish Wilson, Paras.
	Industry Surveys
1430	A survey of GIS usage in the E&P industry. Paola Peroni & Chris Jepps, Exprodat Consulting.
1500	Vacant Slot. Offers of additional Papers to Paul Duller (P.Duller@btinternet.com)
1530	Conference Close; Tea/coffee